- The process of being on the colonic enema table is a client's opportunity to experience the responsibility of feeling bowel pressure with the gentle <.5 psi water pressure, actively push out stool, and repeat this 'pressure/push' over the course of 30 minutes in a quiet, private room. The disposable speculum is smaller in diameter than a pencil (2.0mm) and is self-inserted 1.5" into the rectal canal. A bell is provided should assistance be needed during the service, otherwise the client is re-training or maintaining their colons (peristalsis muscle) to respond in a manner that is more conducive to regular bowel movements.
- Mardell Hill is available to comfort the client before, during, and after the service. Mardell Hill is not able to predict your medical needs, diagnosis, prognosis, or prescribe in any way. Any questions that pertain to past or current medical concerns should be discussed with the appropriate medical care provider prior to receiving a colonic enema.

The Basic intro colonic enema is perfect for the client that wants to just get it done, no questions asked, no fuss, no frill, no extensive conversation about your health or health issues. You are in good health, without extensive questions and have seen the appropriate medical care provider/s for any necessary questions prior to getting a colonic enema.

For whatever reason; lifestyle or dietary changes, just cleaning out, ate something that didn't work out well, financially challenged but needs the support, or just plain curious. Just get it done colonic enema!

For best results following your colonic enema, be sure to intake electrolytes, greens, and probiotics within 30 minutes.

I have chosen this Basic Intro and understand and agree with the terms and conditions.
